

7th International Conference on
RiTA
Robot Intelligence Technology and Applications

November 1 - 3, 2019
KAIST, Daejeon, KOREA

Welcome to RiTA 2019

The 7th International Conference on Robot Intelligence Technology and Applications (RiTA 2019) will take place on 1 – 3 November 2019 in conjunction with the 2nd AI World Cup 2019 at KAIST, Daejeon, KOREA. The theme of this year’s conference is: “Intelligent robots in daily life: helping, entertaining and competing”. As robot intelligence improves we will have more robots to help us at home and at work. They will also entertain and comfort us and even help to educate our children at school. This conference will present the latest research results and applications in the field of robot intelligence. Researchers from around the world will share their knowledge and experience in artificial intelligence and robotics. The conference is an excellent opportunity for in-depth discussions and social networking with other researchers.
